

Greetings 7:10ers and interested guests,

It is with regret we inform you that this week's edition of the Frameable, Ineluctable, Winter Edition of the Early Word Newsletter has not been published due to the recent Christmas Holiday celebrations. We will also be DARK the following week, January 1st, and will resume our meetings on January 8th. That meeting is currently scheduled to be held at our usual meeting place, The Ranch at our normal time of 7:10 a.m.

With any luck there will be an Early Word issue at that meeting.

Sincerely,

Loren, Editarian

Happy New Year!
